

Clubwomen Hear Carnival Report; Program Arranged

At the regular meeting of Torrance Women's club last Wednesday afternoon, clubwomen will enjoy a unique program arranged by Mrs. Samuel V. Rauss, program chairman.

The speaker will reveal her vivid impressions of the land and its people—intimate revelations of family life as she lived it in a Moslem home. She describes most interestingly the colorful life of gay Cairo; delightful evenings spent on the desert, as guests of a Bedawi sheik; the Nile at flood time, intimate life and beauty secrets of Egyptian women, and in concluding will lead her audience back into the mystery and awe of ancient Egypt.

Mrs. J. W. Post and her committee will have charge of the silver tea to follow the program. Mrs. R. E. Smith, as general chairman for the third annual carnival, wishes to express her sincere appreciation to the following chairmen and their committees who made possible the outstanding financial success of this year's benefit, who are: W. E. Walton and Mesdames Samuel V. Rauss, Herman Freys, R. E. Olsen, W. C. Silence, John Kiefer, E. J. Rogers, Chris Jones, E. A. Miles, L. C. Miller, W. J. Neelands, F. E. Cooper, H. E. Massie, A. H. Billigo, Gordon Smith, C. T. Rippy, A. E. Palmer, W. E. Walton, C. E. Ward, B. C. Buxton and Miss Esther V. Maxwell.
